

Heart of an Athlete – September 2008

Name: Drew Mitchell
Age: 20
City/State: Ames, IA
Home Town: Fort Dodge, IA
School: Iowa State University

Sports and position played:
Football, Wide Receiver
Played Junior College Basketball my freshman year

Sports Achievements:
Helped lead my high school football and basketball teams to state
Academic All-Region my freshman year of College at Iowa Central Community College

FCA Role: Student-Athlete, Huddle Leader

Favorite Bible verse: There are many verses that I could call my favorite at certain times in my life but I would have to say Psalms 27.

Who is your athletic role model? I look up to anyone that competes for the Glory of God.

How has God impacted you through FCA? He has shown me how to apply the things I have learned from Him and His Word to competition on the field.

Share one tip that helps you be a Christ-like competitor: Knowing that whether I succeed or fail, God still loves me and has a plan for me.

Have you signed the Team FCA Competitor's Creed? Yes

Favorite Pig Out Food: I'll eat anything, but if I had to choose it'd be Oreos and Milk

Favorite Music Groups: Anything with meaning and a purpose

Favorite Book: Purpose Driven Life

Favorite Sports Teams: Iowa State Cyclones, Dallas Cowboys, LA Lakers

Future goals: Help Iowa State win a big 12 Championship and a Bowl Game

The biggest concerns facing youth today are: Negative influences concerning alcohol & sex

The biggest concerns facing Christian youth today are: Openly expressing their faith to help others deal with some of life's problems.

Favorite Pastimes: Spending time with Family and friends, watching movies